

Northern edge of the site overlooks woodland

Small park creates a focal point in the northern half of the site

Formal park square is a key feature in the higher density portion of the site

Mature avenue trees along Westminster Road are retained as key features

Flats define this important corner of the site

Entrance avenue is aligned to the cupola on top of the listed building to the south

Westminster Road

Coare Street